

DESIGNATED ENDOWMENT SCHOLARSHIP FUND

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

The GEORGE AND HONEY CANNEY SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT FUND (GHCS) was established to support the mission of advanced education for the purpose of Catholic Students in the Diocese of Baker from the Estate of Honey Canney, wife of George Canney and a long standing parish member of St. Francis of Assisi, Bend Oregon. The Legacy of Faith Foundation will follow the schedule below annually:

- February 1st – March 31st Advertise: twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500) or more per year committing to two (2) years: Freshman and Sophomore years of college, who has a high school C grade average (GPA: 2.0) or higher, for one (1) preferred practicing Catholic Student in the Diocese of Baker. The student may attend any college of higher education within and outside the State of Oregon. Such a college or university does not have to be Catholic however, it should support “Catholic values”. NOTE: In the case where last year’s selected candidate was a Freshman, they will be selected for their Sophomore year if they show proof of a C grade average (GPA: 2.0) or higher for their Freshman year.
- March 1st – March 31st Submit: Qualified Applications (see “GHCS Application form”) from applicants should be sent to the Executive Director of The Legacy of Faith Foundation (LFF) (currently: Mark French at: Mark@DioceseofBaker.org).
- April 1st – April 30th Select: The best-qualified candidate by the LFF Board.
- May 1st Communicate: To the selected candidate, their sponsor, and chosen school. The Executive Director of LFF will write a congratulatory letter to the selected candidate and a Thank you letter to all other applicants and their sponsors.
- August 1st Payment: Will be initiated by The Executive Director of LFF. An LFF check will be issued on behalf of George and Honey Canney accompanied by a letter to the selected candidate’s choice of higher education for tuition expenses. A copy of the accompanied letter will be sent to the selected candidate and their sponsor.
- Quarterly (School year): Email check-in between LFF Ex Dir & selected candidate
